Questions to Think About Before Investing

Is this a good industry to be in?

Does the company have a good value proposition?

Is the company in good financial health?

Is the company undervalued?

IPG Company Overview

Key Points

- World's Leading developer and manufacturer of high-performance fiber lasers.
 - Pioneered the technology
- Diverse Global Customer base
 - Sell to OEMs, System Integrators, and End Users
- Numerous applications and industries that use IPG products
 - Offers low, mid, and high power lasers
 - Mainly Materials Processing – Cutting and Welding

Applications

Value Proposition of Fiber Lasers

- Efficiency – Dissipates heat over the entirety of the cable, reducing energy loss.
- Precision – Straight, focused beams, increasing power and accuracy.
- Maintenance – Mirrors used in other lasers require frequent, extremely complicated alignment
- Convenience – lighter and smaller due to the removal of large mirrored chambers.

	Power	Beam Quality	Electrical Efficiency	Wave- Length	Footprint	Maintenance	Ownership Costs

Disk Lasers Yb: YAG (Solid State)
Direct Diode

Investment Thesis & Variant Perception

Our View

- Conventional lasers are getting older (20+ years)
 - Companies looking to replace older lasers
 - Market is mostly concentrated with conventional lasers
- Fiber lasers are a cheaper, more powerful, and more reliable alternative
 - IPG is the leader of the fiber laser space.
- Great opportunity for IPG to steal market share from competitors and further innovate its products

The Street's View

- Recent insider sales have lead to an overreaction from the market, driving the prices down.
- The Street is concerned about adoption rates of the disruptive technology.
- The Street is overly concerned about increased competition from low-cost producers due to temporary slowdowns in bookings from key market sectors, like China.

Summary

Is this a good industry to be in?

The fiber laser industry as a whole is growing at 20% YoY

Does the company have a good value proposition?

IPG's lasers are cheaper, more efficient, and more powerful than competitors'

Is the company undervalued?

Worry by the street is depressing the stock price below its fair value

How did we do?

The background image shows a panoramic aerial view of a dense urban skyline, likely New York City, during twilight or nighttime. The city is filled with numerous skyscrapers of various heights, their windows glowing with light. In the foreground, the intricate grid of streets and the tops of buildings are visible. The sky above is a deep orange and pink, transitioning into a darker blue. A large, semi-transparent dark blue rectangular overlay covers the middle portion of the image, containing the text.
